

Learning Objectives

- Recognize ethical reasoning used by accountants.
- Identify different principles and rules of the AICPA Code of Professional Conduct.
- Identify independence and objectivity issues.
- Recognize ethical standards and violations.
- Identify disciplinary actions by the Board.
- Recognize Colorado State Board licensing requirements.
- Identify different naming requirements for CPA firms.
- Recognize CPE requirements.

Chapter 1: Ethics and Ethical Reasoning

- Ethical Reasoning and Accountants
- Ethical Dilemmas in Accounting

Chapter 2: AICPA Code of Professional Conduct

- AICPA's Code of Professional Conduct
- Summaries of the Six Principles
- Conceptual Framework – Threats and Safeguards Approach
- Summaries of the Eleven Rules of Conduct
 - 1.100 - Integrity and Objectivity Rule
 - 1.200 - Independence Rule
 - 1.300 - General Standards
 - 1.400 - Acts Discreditable
 - 1.510 - Contingent Fees
 - 1.520 - Commissions and Referral Fees
 - 1.600 - Advertising and Other Forms of Solicitation
 - 1.700 - Confidential Client Information Rule
 - 1.800 - Form of Organization and Name Rule

Chapter 3: Colorado Rules and Regulations

- Proper Use - Holding Out
- Continuing Professional Education
- Peer Review Requirements
- Rules of Professional Conduct
- Firm Requirements
- Grounds for Disciplinary Action-Administrative Penalties (Statute 12-2-123).