

OBJECTIVES

Resisting Corporate Corruption will teach you how to resist unethical behavior by studying specific cases that gained national attention. By instilling broader perspectives offered by these cases, it will enable future executives to spot and defuse ethics problems before they reach the critical conditions portrayed in this course.

COURSE OUTLINE

Section I – The Enron Cases

- Part 1 – Demolishing Financial Control, Neutering the Gatekeepers
- Part 2 – Business Struggles, Accounting Manipulations
- Part 3 – Resisting Corruption at Enron

Section II – The Financial Crisis Cases

- Part 1 – New Business Models Undermine Standards and Controls
- Part 2 – Consequences for Gatekeepers and Firms
- Part 3 – Financial Firms and Resisters

Section 111 – The Post Crisis Cases – Reforms, Resistance, Continuing Realities

- Part 1 – The Dodd-Frank Act: A Primer